Eighth Annual Blue Mass
We Honor Police Officers, Firefighters, Military, Emergency Personnel, and all First Responders
Tuesday, February 17, 2015
12:00 Noon Mass
St. Pius X High School Gym
Albuquerque, NM
An all-faith community celebration...all are welcome!
Over 2,200 attendees are expected.

The Blue Mass has been scheduled to encourage these fine men and women in their work and to remind them that they are not alone. As archbishop, I love all of you and pray for your safety and success.
Archbishop Michael J. Sheehan

ALBUQUERQUE – Thursday, February 12, 2015- IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Archbishop Michael J. Sheehan will be the celebrant at the Eighth Annual Blue Mass held Tuesday, February 17, 2015 at 12:00 noon in the St. Pius X High School gymnasium located at 5301 St. Josephs Pl NW Albuquerque, NM 87120.

This is an ALL FAITH COMMUNITY CELEBRATION for all uniformed men and women serving in all branches of law enforcement, fire, military, corrections, and emergency medical personnel in the State of New Mexico.

Archbishop Sheehan is celebrating this special Mass as a time of prayer and thanksgiving to all first responders for their dedicated service to our community and for their families who support them.

Several dignitaries from the State will be there and over 2,200 attendees are expected.

There will be a reception immediately following the Mass in the auxiliary gymnasium next door to meet and greet those who put their lives on the line every day to serve and protect us all. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend the Mass and reception. Contact: Deacon Steve Rangel or Yolanda Sutton at the Deacon's Office, 505.831.8246--END
