

Holy Ghost Parish has an open position for Director - Ongoing English Faith Formation Program (OFFP)

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

- In accordance with the Archdiocese of Santa Fe Pastoral Plan, Education and Catechesis is the presentation of the fullness of the Catholic Faith to every generation, embracing peoples of every culture, language and race. Through a lifetime of learning and teaching, disciples of Jesus are formed by encounters with the Person of Christ, the Word of God, Sacraments, Sacred Liturgy, Tradition of the Church and Communion of Saints. Ongoing F.F.P. takes care of the spiritual needs of every member of the parish - from birth until one's encounter with the Risen Lord. It advocates Eucharist centered life and Word of God centered living, enhancing the faith at personal, family, and parish levels of life.

Under the direction of the Parish Pastor, the Director of this program supervises and coordinates all the Parish Faith Formation activities and programs, designated to build up the faith life of the whole community.

The Successful candidate :

- Possesses or working toward Advanced Level diocesan certification
- Minimum of one year experience or educational training, leading Parish Faith Formation programs and activities
- Training in two or more of the following : RCIA, Children and Youth Ministries, Curriculum Development, Adult Education, Catechist Formation, Scripture, Liturgy
- Bachelor's degree; with a major in Theology or Religion Studies or Morality or Pastoral Ministry or Pastoral Counseling a plus
- Is functionally bilingual in English/Spanish

Interested parties should contact Fr. Thomas Paickattu at the parish office 505-265-5957.
